Dear Jean,

I cannot begin to tell you how much I have enjoyed your books on Jasper County, MS! I find myself looking for someone about every week, especially as we put the final touches on the Jasper County Cemetery book. (We are trying to identify some of the Confederate Soldiers who are buried in Jasper County but without the C. S. A. Headstones.)

I checked the back of your book but did not see a MAULDIN source (P.T.S.)

Would you have time to do me a little personal favor? As you remember, my mother's family were MAULDINS and I am still trying to document the older Mauldin generation. Your WHO MARRIED WHOM JASPER COUNTY includes a Mauldin Family that I cannot find anything about. (See copy of enclosed page # 24) Do you have work papers showing where the information came from applicable to the family of

"Mauldin, J. M. C. AL1840 1858 Elizabeth S. GA1842"

I have not found this family in the U. S. Census but maybe I've just missed it. Mrs. Raymond (Rachel) Horne's book on the Oscar Mauldin family documents a Smith County 1850 Census listing of "Julius Maulden." I dug through the Census for 1850/1860/1870/1880 and finally discovered that the Julius Maulden plus wife Harriett of 1850 were listed in 1860/1870 under the spelling of "MOULDER" Harriet is widowed by 1880 and is again listed, with young kids under "Moulder." Julius had a relative, perhaps brother, named Daniel and the same applies reference the spelling of his last name. Therefore, I've concluded they were not MAULDINS at all

Could the above "J. M. C. Mauldin" also have been a "Moulder?"

(Mauldin and Moulder may both be from the same original surname for all that I know.)

I spoke recently with your neighbors, Lee and Jess Mauldin, by telephone. Hopefully, I can get back down that way in a few weeks for another little visit.

The Jones Co. Genealogy Organization is about 95 % or more complete with the Jasper Co. Cemt Book---we are trying to complete some of the proofing at this time. ---sometime in the next 100 years? Again, you and your crew are to be thanked for your books on Jones Co., etc.---this entails some really hard work!

* Would like a short note on the above, if you have time.

Regards,

Royce Strickland

To his Excellency Henry Grimarest, Governor

Francis Krebs, husband of the Widow Mrs. Lanne, daughter of Mr. Mauran, most respectfully represents to your Excellency;

That Mrs. Mauran, the mother of your petitioner's wife, has possession of and occupied Round Island by permission of the French Governor Bienville in the year one thousand seven hundred and forty five;

that said Round Island is situated about thirty leagues from the City of New Orleans, and about sixteen leagues from the Mobile, being about one league and a half to the South of the mainland,
and two leagues to the South East of Horn Island.

The above named Round Island is one third of a league in width, is the same more or less, and inasmuch as his Excellency General Bernardo de Galvez on his return from a visit to Mobile and Pensacola stopped on the said Island, and then promised the wife of your petitioner a grant for the same, but as the various occupations of his Excellency, the General, causes him to be unmindful of this application which your petitioner had made on this subject; your petitioner presents a Memorial to his Excellency.
De Piernas, then Governor ad-interim, who granted to your petitioner permission to occupy the said Island in the same manner as it has been occupied by the aforesaid Mrs. Mauran in her life time;

Now, as your petitioner has children and as the title of the said Island may hereafter be disputed, your petitioner humbly entreats your Excellency to grant him the right of possession to the same, which favor he ~~cannot~~ hopes to receive from the great goodness of your Excellency.

Round Island, this Tenth day of November, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three.

MAUDLIN

Ezekiel Maudlin, first in Perquimans, came from London, according to family tradition. This name does not appear on any of the records of the Lower counties in Virginia, neither do the Quaker records show a person of this name. So the opinion is advanced, that he came straight from England to Perq, or landed first in New England, where he m Hannah Nicholson (d of Christopher, & Hannah —, b Mch 4, 1667). It is positively known that Christopher Nicholson came to Perq from New Eng, where he had already m Hannah Rednap. The names & ages of his children are recorded in Berkeley Par Reg, but his marriage is not mentioned.

Ezekiel Maudlin, & wife Hannah, issue: 1 Edward, b Feby 11, 1695—2 Ezekiel, b April 2, 1698—3 Mary, b Mar 2, 1701—4 Elizabeth, b Nov 20, 1703—5 Sarah, b April 28, 1706. Ezekiel Maudlin died Mch 16, 1705-6. (According to the Roman Calendar.)

Hannah (née Nicholson) m 2d Charles. Her will p in Perq Co, July 1752, names son: Edward Moudlin, dau's Elizabeth White, Sarah Perry, & Ann Cox (son-in-law Robert Cox), gr-sons: John Moulin, & John Cox, gr-dau Mary Moulin (d of John).

Ezekiel Maudlin grt for land in Perq, June 20, 1703, which he conveyed to Timothy Clare, April 26, 1705. (Deed book F, No 60.) He evidently died intestate, as no will appears in Perq, made by him.

Hannah Maudlin (above) was 2d wife of Samuel Charles Sr, he had for 1st wife Elizabeth, by whom he had issue, d Elizabeth. (See Charles record in this book.)

Ezekiel (2) Maudlin, m Hannah Toms (d of Joshua, & Sarah née Gosbey, b June 6, 1706), issue: 1 Jeremiah, b Aug 21, 1725—2 Joshua, b Apl 19, 1727—3 Edward, b Apl 7, 1735. Hannah wife of (2) Ezekiel m 2d Edmund Chancey. (2) Ezekiel Maudlin, in his will p in Perq April 17, 1732, names sons: Jeremiah, Joshua, & James, wife Hannah. His son Edward is not named for some reason, & as Edward b April 7, 1735, was born 2 years after the death of sd Ezekiel, we do not see how he could have been one of his sons. He is certainly given in Berkeley Par Reg, however, as "son of Ezekiel, & Hannah." (Probably the 2d Ezekiel & Hannah Toms.)

Sarah Maudlin was a legatee in the will of Samuel Charles, Mar 12, 1727-8. (3) Ezekiel Maudlin, is thought to have m 1st Hannah — & had Edward, b April 7, 1735; he m 2d Mary — issue: 1 Elizabeth, b July 13, 1738—2 Sarah, b March 20, 1741. Ezekiel Maudlin was "Overseer of the Roads" in the district of John Perisho Apl 1740. The division of Ezekiel (2) Maudlin Est, 1737, shows Hannah as his wife, sons: Jeremiah, Joshua, & Thomas.

Among Tithables; May 25, 1743, Edward Modling, Edward Jr, Wm Modling, & Ezekiel Maudlin. Tithables 1768; Mary Modlin, & son Ezekiel, Edmund Modlin, Jacob Elliott & Joseph Draper.

Hannah Chancey, & Thomas Weeks, made petition to the Court, Jan 1736, for a division of the Est of Ezekiel Maudlin Dec'd.
